Easter Bunny Amigurumi in an Egg

Free amigurumi pattern · 4 in / 10 cm · mardingezituru.com

An Easter bunny peeking out of a pastel egg shell: a round white bunny head with two upright ears and a pink nose sits in the bottom half of an egg, with two tiny paws holding on to the cracked zigzag rim. The zigzag is one round of short and tall stitches, so the egg is only a few minutes more than a plain cup.

It is about 4 in / 10 cm tall with the ears in DK cotton, a sweet Easter basket filler. Every round has its stitch count.

Finish: The last round makes the cracked zigzag edge; put a little stuffing in the bottom and set the head in so it peeks out; sew in place at the back.

Assembly

1. Sew the ears upright on top of the head, 4 stitches apart, pinching the base so they stand.
2. Put a little stuffing in the bottom of the egg and set the head in so it peeks out over the rim. Sew it in at the back with a few stitches.
3. Sew the two paws on the front of the rim, as if the bunny is holding on.

FAQ

Can I make a chick in the egg instead?

Yes, our Easter chick in an egg uses the same idea with a shell top as a hat.
